

Tonight's show is a sonic tribute to all those globular gargantuans, behemoth blobs and colossal slimes from outer space with bottomless stomachs that would just love to get you into a deadly space embrace until there is nothing left of you!

Featuring auditory delights in a wide variety of musical styles from sound clips to noise to songs to the soundscapes of where only slime people live. We should go there but tonight we throw caution to the wind and slip down the drain into a congealing nightmare. This show will just ooze out of your speakers. So caution to those listening with earphones. You might yourself being absorbed by the music from the inside out.

Don't Miss It!      Don't Skip It!

And as always, remember to...
